XXII. And be it enacted, That the ſaid agent ſhall be allowed for his ſervices the following commiſſions, to wit: for all payments actually made to either of the treaſurers in virtue of this act, three per cent. and for all bonds taken by the ſaid agent in virtue of this act, three per cent.

Notice to State Debtors.

WILLIAM MARBURY, Agent.

BERN, October 11.

The Executive Helvetic Directory to the citizens compoſing the municipality of Zurich.

Citizens,

IN the place of receiving from general Maſſena a ſatisfactory reply to its proteſts and proteſtations, on the ſubject of the forced loan which he had demanded of you, the executive directory learns that a like ſum has been demanded of the commerce of Bern.

It enjoins you, citizens municipal officers, under your perſonal reſponſibility, under pain of being conſidered as traitors to your country, to refuſe not only all ulterior payment of the demand made upon you, but all negotiation, or even to ſpeak upon the ſubject.

The Executive Directory expects that no motive will lead you to diſpenſe with the execution of this order, and that you will have the energy to perſiſt.

ZURICH, October 26.

The Helvetic directory having formally forbidden the payment of the loan of 800,000 francs, impoſed on the inhabitants of Zurich. General Maſſena has ſent from that town the Swiſs troops who did duty there, and has replaced them by French troops.

The reſerve of the French army has made a movement. General Maſſena, apprehenſive that prince Charles, who advanced with his army into the Briſgau, would attempt to turn us at Baſle, has juſt ſent the reſerve to protect the Rhine on that point.

Our troops during the ſhort time they remained in Conſtance pillaged a part of the town.

STRASBURG, October 20.

Private letters inform us, that ſince our troops entered Manheim, the bridge has been eſtabliſhed, and that many divisions have passed it in order to advance in two columns against Heilbrun and Bruchsal.

The day before yesterday the grand train of artillery of the army of the Rhine set out for Frankenthal.

Gen. Nez is advancing against Aschaffenburg and Franconia, with a body of the army composed of 10,000 infantry and nearly as many cavalry.

October 22.

General Lecourbe is not to join the army of the Danube—according to repeated letters from him, received by the minister of war, he has resolved upon taking the chief command of the army of the Rhine.

VIENNA, October 26.

The exchange of couriers within this fortnight, between Petersburg and Vienna, has been more frequent than ever. It is said that the object is an extraordinary reinforcement of Russian auxiliaries. Besides the Russians already on their march, the court of Petersburg has determined to send 150,000 men against France, a great part of whom are to commence their march in January next.

Of a corps of 60,000 men heretofore spoken of, 24,000 have already arrived in Gallicia.

The states of Hungary have again determined to send further reinforcements into the field, if necessary.

The Hungarian nobleman Suetics, alone, at his own expence, furnishes 100 riflemen.

To-day's Court Gazette contains a report of general Melas, from Marozzo, of the 14th instant, respecting the events near Cuneo. The enemy had the important village Bainette in possession. General Mitrowsky drove him out of it on the 13th, and maintained his position, although the enemy made two attempts to dislodge him. The enemy's total loss is 1000 men—ours, 15 killed, 116 wounded, and 54 missing. A whole battalion of the enemy, consisting of 500 men, was cut off, and 450 men, besides 16 officers, were taken prisoners.

From ITALY, October 20.

Admiral Nelson has embarked 1000 men for a secret expedition; and it is said he himself will sail with his fleet to the Genoese coast.

LINDAU, October 25.

The united armies of field-marshal Suwarrow and general Korsakow, are principally still in our neighbourhood; only several regiments having moved by way of Bregentz towards Rheineck. The Russian head quarters are still here. Provisions in this city and whole neighbourhood are daily becoming scarcer and dearer.

The report of Coire being in possession of the French is unfounded. The army of the archduke is securely stationed in the vicinity of Schaffhausen, without interruption.

HANAU, October 29.

Report says general Massena has crossed the Rhine in the Grisons, and is making progress, but no date is mentioned.

Frequent skirmishes take place before Philipsburg. The French stormed the outworks of that city three times on the 21st, but were every time repulsed.

At Francfort, five Jewish houses have stopped payment, and several others followed at Aachen, &c.

The Russian troops on the frontiers of South Prussia, are assembling at Riga, according to the public journals, for a new expedition.

NEW-YORK, January 8.

The following paragraphs are copied from some of the latest London papers by the Liverpool packet.

By letters from Falmouth, in our maritime intelligence, it appears that the combined fleet in Brest is preparing to put to sea. Seven sail of the line were seen coming out of the harbour on Friday last. The whole of the enemy's naval force in that port, amounted, it is said, to between forty and fifty sail of the line, besides frigates.

The stadtholder has now got possession of a tolerable fleet, but, most unfortunately, his crews are at present in Nubibus, the treasures for their pay in the bank of Air, and his harbours in the Isle of Sky!

The convention between our army in Holland and the enemy is at last before the public, in an official form.

From the first moment that we had occasion to notice this expedition, we pronounced it an enterprize neither calculated to promote the honour nor the advantage of the British nation. Its unfortunate termination has more than verified this opinion. It has not only been attended with very great sacrifices of public interest, but has closed in a manner more humiliating than the country has ever experienced in any undertaking on so large a scale even in the most degrading periods of ministerial turpitude.

The best understanding possible seems to prevail between the chieftains of the British and French armies. Several of our generals have had interviews, and dined with those of the enemy; and I am told general Brune dined yesterday with the duke of York, who, it is added, sent his own carriage for the citizen general.

IMPORTANT.

From a PROVIDENCE PAPER—Jan. 1.

Extract of a letter from captain Parry, dated off Cape Francois, December 14th, 1799.

"Commodore Talbot, left this place about 16 days since, to go to the Mole to water, and expected to have been back in eight or ten days—we are rather alarmed for his safety, as we well know there is no dependence on Toussaint or his administration. By a letter from Dr. Stevens I have been informed, that there has an insurrection broke out at Port-de-Paix, Jean Rebel, and the vicinity of the Mole, headed by Goliard. I have ordered the Herald down to the Mole, with orders to send her boat in, should the Constitution be there, with the above information to commodore Talbot. What will be the event of the insurrection is beyond human calculation."

Another letter says, the government of St. Domingo, have imprisoned an officer of the Boston frigate.

PHILADELPHIA, January 11.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at St. Jago of Cuba, dated 11th December, 1799, to his friend at Philadelphia.

"Some American seamen and supercargoes die here with the true Philadelphia and New-York yellow fever; but none of the inhabitants of this city take it; which causes the Spaniards here to call it the fever of the United States. How differently do the Philadelphians think of it?"

The British government has ratified the provisionary treaty with Toussaint.

Translated for the Philadelphia Gazette, from a Hamburg paper of October 24.

The honourable senate of the free Imperial city of Hamburg, have issued an ornidance (the 18th Oct.) which is to exist for four months, for the relief of such commercial houses, as are, at the present time, (altho' possessed of sufficient property) unable to fulfil their engagements—

Chiefly on the following point:—

The senate, at their next session, will appoint a committee, to whom merchants, under the above circumstances, are to deliver up their books and papers attested on oath.

The committee will appoint two of the creditors trustees, to look into the business, and to make out a statement or balance; of which they have to make report within four weeks, to the creditors in general.

The business will be carried on under the care of these two trustees, so as to save public credit, sacrifice of property, and immediate ruin.

No failures of consequence have been known since the above ordinance.

HAMBURG, October 22.

It is with the greatest satisfaction we can announce to the commercial world, that since some days past the importation of bullion and money has been considerable, and some more is expected.—No more failures have happened.

Public credit is again re-established on our exchange. It is hoped, also, that it will soon be retrieved abroad.

BALTIMORE, January 18.

Advices from Italy of the 14th October state, that the four treaties of alliance, which his Neapolitan majesty has concluded with the courts of Vienna, Petersburg, London and the Ottoman Porte, have appeared in print. The one with his Imperial royal majesty, dated May 19, 1798, contains 10 articles, in which, among other matters, it is stipulated that the emperor shall employ in Italy 60,000, and in case of necessity 80,000 men; and his Neapolitan majesty engages to assist the emperor with 30,000, or even 40,000 men, besides keeping 3 or 4 frigates in the Adriatic sea, to scour it of Barbary corsairs, &c. Neither party shall make a separate peace without the written consent of the other, and then only on condition that all the conquests which the enemy may have made from his ally during the war, be restored to him.

An article from Suabia of the 24th October says, that a declaration of war of the two Imperial courts against the present government in Switzerland is expected.

January 20.

Extract of a letter received from Mr. Joseph Pitcairn, consul of the United States of America at Hamburg, by a respectable mercantile house here—dated HAMBURG, 4th November, 1799.

"To-day our prices for sugar began to revive and other things must follow, for that is the article on which the glut has been principally manifested.

"Our chief hope of demand is from the Dutch market, which is 30 per cent. higher than ours; in former times, a difference of 14 per cent. would have emptied every store in Hamburg.—Good merchantable coffee may be called here 14d pence per pound, which at the extra of 30 per cent. with England would give 18d sterling, or 150s per cwt. By last mail our exchange was 29s, but had many symptons of rising.—Cotton a good article, first quality Surinam, 64 groats, equal to about 3s 10d sterling, and all others in proportion; we seldom have a long delay here on the sale of this article.

"The house of HOPE, formerly of Amsterdam, has been speculating in the finer kinds of indigo, which has raised their price to 20 per cent. more than it was in the spring."

"DIED, at Mid-Hill, in Frederick county, on the 14th instant, with the yellow fever, UPTON SHERBDINE, Esq; first commissioner under the law of the United States for the direct tax in the district of Maryland; in his death the public has sustained a great loss."

Gentlemen,

HIS excellency the Governor has, by his determination of to-day, thought proper to change the day of prayer, in the proclamation reſpecting general George Waſhington, to the twenty-ſecond of February next; you will therefore, immediately upon the receipt of this, make the neceſſary alteration, and conſider this as your authority for ſo doing.

I am, with great reſpect,
Your obedient ſervant,
NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the governor and council.

Meſſrs. Green.

By his EXCELLENCY
BENJAMIN OGLE, Eſquire.
GOVERNOR of MARYLAND,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Legiſlature of this State, penetrated with regret for the death of the illuſtrious patriot general George Waſhington, and zealous to expreſs their high reſpect and veneration for his eminent virtues and diſtinguiſhed ſervice to his country, have, by a reſolution unanimouſly aſſented to on the 17th inſtant, requeſted me "to appoint, by proclamation, a day of mourning, humiliation and prayer, throughout this ſtate, and to recommend it to the citizens thereof to aſſemble in their reſpective places of worſhip, to teſtify, in the moſt public manner, their veneration for his memory, and to derive, from the juſt eulogiums of his meritorious ſervices, the beſt motives for the imitation of his virtues."

And, whereas I entirely accord with the honourable legiſlature in the meaſure propoſed, and am anxious to co-operate with them in paying this tribute of grateful reſpect to the merits and long tried patriotiſm of our deceaſed fellow-citizen, I have therefore thought proper to recommend and adviſe, and do hereby recommend and adviſe accordingly, that the twenty-ſecond day of February next be obſerved throughout this ſtate as a day of mourning, humiliation and prayer—that the citizens on that day go into mourning, and abſtaining, as far as may be, from their ſecular occupation, devote the time to the ſacred duties of religion—that they call to mind the virtues, public ſervices, and unſhaken patriotiſm of the deceaſed, and admiring endeavour to emulate them—that they implore the Moſt High God to ſupply his loſs, by inſpiring them with a love of true liberty and pure religion, and by diſpenſing the bleſſings of peace and knowledge throughout the land—and that he would grant to the people of this and the United States, that the wiſdom and virtues of a Waſhington may never ceaſe to influence and direct our public councils.

Given in the council chamber, at the city of Annapolis, under the ſeal of the State of Maryland, this eighteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine.
